

SPRING 2019 SEASON PROGRAM

BY ANGELICYUUKILA

UPDATED: MARCH 12, 2019

Welcome to my streams. I am AngelicYuukiLA, a variety game streamer out of Los Angeles. I hope you enjoy all the streams I have provided thus far and streams that I will give you in the future. My goal is to give you fun and entertaining streams no matter how I do in a game. I might do good and I might not, but my main thing to you is that you are having fun. This Spring season could be the start of something interesting and I hope you will enjoy the ride. Before you get started, make sure to read this document as it will contain information on my streams, including the rules, ideas, and other cool things I will do.

Spring 2019 Season Preview

This season for the streams, I am bringing you classic games from the past as well as present PS4 and PS3 games. I am going to open up an opportunity to play with the viewers later in the season once everything is set up correctly and once you have a chance to know me a bit better as a competitive player. I will also be bringing you some PC games as well later in the season to give you an idea of other types of games I play.

STREAM RULES AND REGULATIONS

Profanity: Profanity is not allowed on most of my streams unless I explicitly said or announced that on a certain stream I will allow it. Profanity of any kind may be offensive to some of your fellow viewers, so please keep it clean

Personal Items: Personal Items such as religion, politics, etc are not allowed to be discussed during the stream. This is to make sure no one gets offended during the streams. This is also to make sure that no conflicts will spill out into the real world once the stream is over.

No Follow Spam: While I will be ok with you all sharing your links to your channel for you to follow each other for, I am not going to be OK with you spamming your link. I am happy with following all of your Twitch channels, but don't spam your link, otherwise, it may throw off viewers from the stream. Its like begging for something to happen, and it should not happen like that.

Don't Beg for a Character: In most RPG games, players are allowed to play as a character in battle (Example: Tales of Vesperia). Sometimes, I will be doing special events for the games where I will be playing as certain characters. Sometimes, when the plot calls for it, someone leaves the party and can't be played for a while. In these cases, I will be picking a character based on strategy. Don't beg for a character to be selected just because that the character is cool, cute, etc. For games like these, it will be based on strategy

Trolling: The act of trolling on this channel is very much prohibited. Trolling is the act of making fun to both the streamer and the chatters in the stream. I will be very lenient with trolling this season, but for the Summer 2019 season, I will be much stricter

Have Fun: The most important rule of all is having fun. I want everyone to enjoy the stream and chatting with each other. Make sure to chat with me when needed and feel free to ask questions when you would like. I will even end the streams with a short Question and Answer segment when there needs to be one. Don't be afraid to ask.

GAME SELECTION METHODS

For the Spring 2019 season, I am featuring four game selection methods to make the streams more fun and have more variety. Some weeks will combine two of the four methods in a week. Here are the names of the methods and how it works. Please remember that a few selection methods are for specialized weeks.

Wheel of Games: On certain Mondays and on certain days, I will be doing a "Wheel of Games" show where the games played will be determined by a wheel that is spun live on stream. The wheel will determine the name of the game and the day/time of the game. Should there be a wheel of games show, the first game stream will be on Tuesday.

SPECIAL STREAM EVENTS: There will be some special stream events for everyone to enjoy. The type of events could include a game for the week, a Mario day, or even a community day where everyone can vote for the games they want to see. You can check out the special events in the events documentation in the Events Page or head to the home page and scroll to the bottom of the page to download the specials for the season. There is a word and PDF format for your convince.

COMMUNITY POLLS: During some weeks of the season, I will have a community week. This week is separate form a “Season Appreciation Week” special. The community polls will allow you to give me some suggestions for the streams as well as voting for games you want me to play. Polls for this method of game selection can be asked on the Facebook Page, Strawpoll AND the website (via the “Watch Live” page).

MASTER GAME LIST WEEK: This season, there is a possibility of 63 games. The consoles for this season are PS4, PS3, NDS, SNES, NDS, GBA, and N64. I will have an excel worksheet with different ID numbers from 1-63. The numbers that get selected will be the winner. The games will be selected on a Monday, just like Wheel of Games.

SEASON APPRECIATION WEEK: On the last week of the season, I will open up the selection to all of you folks. The last week of the season is from May 20-25. A special schedule will be released for this special week and voting will begin at least 2 weeks in advance to give time to everyone to vote. Because of the fact that this poll will have multiple choices, this poll is exclusive to those who go to the website and the straw poll. Voting will begin on May 6th and will go until May 19 at 12

PM PT. This is to make sure I have time to update the schedule on the website.

REWARD SELECTIONS FOR THE SEASON

As a Twitch streamer, it is my duty to reward you all for being followers of my channel. Giving you all rewards makes me happy because I am giving you all something in return for your support in my streams. Here are some possible rewards for helping reach certain numbers

Number of Follows (Now: 141)	Reward	Reward Status	Achievement Date
145	Extra stream on a Saturday afternoon at 6 PM PT	4 followers away	TBA
175	Community Day Reward on a Saturday	Not Achieved yet	TBA
200	Special 200 Follower Appreciation Stream	Not Achieved Yet	TBA

NOTES:

Due to the fact that I am not an affiliate yet, you wont be able to subscribe to me, but once I do get to the Affiliate status, I will open up subscriber rewards as well.

Should I not reach a reward number for the season, the same reward will be rolled into the next season to make it fair.

Color Key:

Red: Not Achieved Yet

Yellow: With 10 of achievement

Green: Reward Achieved

HOW TO SUPPORT THE STREAMS THIS SEASON

There are a few ways to support the streams this season besides watching the live streams, Here are some ways to support the streams for this season.

STREAMS ON DEMAND (PAGE UNDER CONSTRUCTION): You can check out streams you missed from any of the games that I have played in the “Streams on Demand” page. Each game will have their own section so that it is easier for you to look for them. The streams will come from my YouTube channel. If you like my content, feel free to subscribe to me on YouTube as well.

*DONATIONS ON TWITCH: For those of you who are feeling generous and enjoy my content, you can also donate to the stream. Donations will be used for new materials and hardware including getting a Nintendo Switch, getting a website domain, and more. For those who would like to support on Twitch via direct donations, please visit the following link: <https://streamelements.com/angelicyuukila/tip>

**DONATIONS VIA PAYPAL: For those who use paypal as a money service can also donate to me there. Donations from there will ALSO go to the stream for material and more. For those who wish to donate via paypal can use this link: Donate via Paypal

DONATIONS VIA PATREON: Coming Soon

*Donations via Twitch must be made using that link. Note that bits are currently unused due to the fact I am not currently a Twitch Affiliate. Bits will open once I am a Twitch Affiliate.

** Donations via paypal may have a processing fee associated with it. Please make sure you check with your bank to make sure that your donation goes through. I will also do my part to see if your donation goes through. In addition to the check, I will also make sure to make the donation “under review” if the donation is a big one (Example: more than $1000). This is to prevent scam donations, troll donations, and donations that are too good to be true. Make sure that after you make your donation, no matter how much, you stay in the chat room so that I can give you a proper thank you and/or shoutout to your channel. Your name will also be featured during the stream should you donate any amount.

Links that you have just seen will also be on the “Watch Live” page in the website.

How you can Support my Streams on Social

Want to support the streams on social media aside from watching on Twitch? Here are some ways you can do it:

- a) Facebook Live via AngelicYuuki Community Page: On this page, I give everyone updates and small previews of what is to come on the streams. I also broadcast here live as a pre-affiliate on Twitch. You can reach the page using this link:

<https://www.facebook.com/AngelicYuukiLA/>

- b) Twitter: On Twitter, I will be posting previews and updates telling you when the next stream is. I will also be posting the link to my channel once I go live on Twitch via restream.io. Make sure to check me out here:
<https://www.twitter.com/AngelicYuukiLA>
- c) Website: I have a stream website for you all to check out even more on the streams. You can also watch me live there and check out the schedule for the week. Website will update when needed. Make sure to check out the website here:
<https://angelicyuukicomunity.weebly.com>
- d) Twitch: The main place of my streams. This is where you will be able to check out my channel and more. My channel also has links to my other social if you need to reach me. Here is the link:
<https://www.twitch.tv/angelicyuukila>
- e) YouTube: Missed any of my streams? I will be exporting my Twitch streams there sometime during the day of the stream. Make sure to check it out. Note that once I reach Twitch Affiliate, you will need to wait until the next day to see it on my YouTube. Check it out here: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCBsMuZ6Ns-xsp78W5qQJbhQ>

Thanks for reading the program. I hope we have a great season together. Let's have fun everyone
